In social networks your best friend asks for money. You will send it.

Your grandma gives you pocket money. You share it with your parents

It is difficult to be your best friend

It is really great to be only one child in a family

You don`t have an invitation to the Birthday party. You go without it

Your parents should pay you for cleaning the room

It is a nice idea not to take part in a family dinner

You don`t need to buy presents for your relatives and friends

You don`t answer a parent`s call

Usually you stay late to go out with friends

The best place for having a meal is next to the computer

It is better to hang out in social networks than prepare for the test

It is important to listen to parents pieces of advice about future career

Fast food is tastier than mother`s pilaf

You prefer to buy useless things rather than collect money

You keep to yourself all feelings instead of sharing with other people

It is cool to transform the appearance

You prefer to watch series all night long and be late for the first lesson

Parents are allowed to enter my room without knocking

You can buy all that you want without parent`s permission

Your parents are not the best role model for you

It is necessary to compare yourself with others

Running away from home is the best way to end the quarrel with relatives

You don`t introduce your friends to parents

The future doesn`t bother you

You don`t take care of your pets

It is essential to do crazy things for popularity

You live one day at a time

It`s nice to ignore your friends messages

You eat everything in the fridge at a friend`s house